Sir,

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) is a statutory body established by an Act of Parliament, viz. The Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 for regulating the profession of Chartered Accountancy in the country. The Institute, functions under the overall administrative control of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Government of India. The ICAI is the second largest professional body of Chartered Accountants in the world, with a strong tradition of service to the Indian economy in public interest.

The affairs of the ICAI are managed by a Council in accordance with the provisions of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 and the Chartered Accountants Regulations, 1988. The Council constitutes of 40 members of whom 32 are elected by the Chartered Accountants and remaining 8 are nominated by the Central Government generally representing the Comptroller and Auditor General of India, Securities and Exchange Board of India, Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Ministry of Finance, and other stakeholders.

Presently, ICAI has One Hundred Sixty-Six Branches and Five Regional Councils across India besides Forty-Four Chapters abroad and 26 Representative offices across world. The Council of ICAI functions through various standing and non-standing committees. One such non-standing committee is the Legal Directorate of the Institute.

Legal Directorate of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, New Delhi invites applications from advocates with experience of not less than 5 years to prepare a panel to represent ICAI in various Courts & Tribunals across India. We also propose to have an advocate on Retainership basis for our head office at New Delhi. The empanelled list of advocates would be valid for a period of four years from the date of empanelment.

An announcement along with application form for this purpose is available on the website of the Institute and can be accessed from www.icai.org by using the link <https://www.icai.org/post/empanelment-of-advocates-in-icai>. Last date for submission of online application is 16th August 2022.

In this regard, we may request you to give the wide publicity to this Announcement in your Bar Council/City inter-alia by displaying this advertisement on the Notice Board of your esteemed Bar Council for the information of all eligible advocates to apply for the purpose.

Thanking you,

(S. V. Krishanmohan)
Chief Legal Advisor
Legal Directorate, ICAI
